ARCHITECTURE AND DESIGN

Positioned on the district Saalekreis, in Saxony-Anhalt, Germany, H6 HOUSE is part of small real estate development called Mirrored Villas. The H6 HOUSE is a private villa designed for family housing, combining the modern style elements with luxury details. Based on elementary needs and family activities, the project team has created an optimal flow that will meet even the most demanding requirements.

What makes this modern house designs so special and different from others?

Modern facades design

Exterior house design facing the backyard

Modern interior design

Luxurious finishes and large areas

H6 HOUSE is our example of the overall sophistication of modern house design.
